OSCE ODIHR
HATE CRIME REPORTING

Information contained in this report was compiled as part of ODIHR's 2023 Hate Crime Report.
For more information, including on previous years' reporting, please visit: hatecrime.osce.org/mongolia

For more information about ODIHR's Hate Crime Report, visit: hatecrime.osce.org/our-methodology

1 2023

Summary

Mongolia last reported information on hate crime to ODIHR for the 2023 Hate Crime Report.

Hate crime data collection in Mongolia
Support for hate crime victims in Mongolia
Hate crime capacity building in Mongolia
Mongolia's hate crime legislation

ODIHR's Key Observation

ODIHR recognizes Mongolia's efforts to report hate crime information to ODIHR. However, based on the available information, it observes that Mongolia does not collect data and statistics on hate crime. In addition, ODIHR observes that Mongolia would benefit from raising awareness among and building the capacity of criminal justice officials to address hate crime.

Official Data

Year	Hate crimes recorded by police	Prosecuted	Sentenced
2023	0	0	0

National Developments

In January 2023, the government of Mongolia presented a draft bill on the 'Protection of the rights of citizens' on social media' and the parliament passed the law two days later, on 20 January 2023. There was widespread concern in the public regarding the potential applications of the law. As a result, the provisions were vetoed by parliament

Incidents reported by civil society

No data reported to ODIHR.

View civil society incidents for Mongolia, 2023