Summary

Albania last reported information on hate crimes to ODIHR for the 2023 Hate Crime Report. In co-operation with the OSCE presence in Albania, Albania has trained law enforcement officers on hate crimes. Following an ODIHR workshop held in 2017, Albania made improvements to its hate crime data recording system, including by enabling the bias motivation to be identified in recorded cases.

In 2021, Albania introduced the National Gender Equality Strategy 2021-2030, which includes specific measures to combat discrimination and hate crimes and promote equality and social inclusion.

ODIHR's Key Observation

ODIHR observes that Albania has not reported information and statistics on hate crimes since ODIHR's 2021 Hate Crime Report. In the absence of an official submission, ODIHR is not able to provide further observations on hate crime data collection in Albania. In addition, ODIHR observes that Albania would benefit from raising awareness among and building the capacity of criminal justice officials to address hate crime.
